MINUTE FOR MISSION: BREAD FOR THE WORLD

HOW MANY WAYS ARE THERE TO SUPPORT MISSION? WE CAN ...

1. Donate money and/or items
2. Volunteer our service
3. Educate ourselves
4. Advocate
5. Pray

Moving towards a more wholistic approach to mission over the past few years, the Kirk has included a couple of advocacy groups that complement the direct service organizations we support. One of these is a Christian organization called Bread for the World, a group which has connections with 50 diverse Christian denominations and is supported by over 4,000 congregations in the US. Because churches and other charitable organizations can meet only a fraction of the need, Bread for the World gives Christians in the U.S. a strong and united voice to encourage and support governmental policies to relieve hunger both here and abroad.

As the year progresses, the Mission committee will share opportunities to be personally involved in the great work of compassion for those in need through the various hunger, shelter, international and youth missions our church supports.

Please help young readers this Summer!

During the month of May RVA Reads is collecting children's books for Summer

(for 4 years-old through early elementary school)

Love to shop at thrift stores with inexpensive children's books?

Is there a little library in your neighborhood with an abundance of children's books?

Do you, or your kids, have gently used children's books they no longer read?

Donate books to the RVA Collection Box in the Narthex (entrance)

At The Gayton Kirk through May

these will be given to young readers along with new books

RVA Reads is a program of Richmond Public Schools
