A Christmas Carol
A ghost story for Christmas

Everyone knows Scrooge's story but you've never seen it told like this before -professional actor Ray Carver, as Scrooge's creator Charles Dickens, tells the tale of the old miser playing all the characters himself -- from Scrooge to the ghosts to the whole Crachit family, including Tiny Tim. Over 40 different characters in all! Chicago's Writer To Writer magazine editor Barbra Croft says Carver presents this classic story as "a ripping good yarn." The Minneapolis Star-Tribune says Carver's work "catches the essence".

"A Christmas Carol: A Ghost Story for Christmas" is a one performance only event!-- Friday and Saturday December 6th & 7th at 7 p.m. The performance is at the Gayton Kirk Presbyterian Church in Richmond's far west end – 11421 Gayton Road, Henrico, VA 23238. Bring the family, this production is appropriate for children 5 and above.
