Robert (Rabbie) Burns was the national bard of Scotland. Over his life he penned several well-known poems such as "Old Lang Syne" and "My Love is Like A Red, Red, Rose."

In Scotland he is celebrated every year at a Burns Supper on January 25th. This is a very elaborate event, whilst we will not following all the traditions we will be incorporating the key elements of a Burns Supper.

We have fun events planned such as Address to the Haggis, Scottish Country Dancing, Poetry recitals and a bake-off competition.

Dinner will be supplied with an option to taste the star of the evening, Haggis.

2020 BOOK GROUP TO CHOOSE BOOKS

All those interested in participating in the Gayton Kirk's Book Group please join us Tuesday evening, Jan 28 at 7 PM at The Kirk. Everyone is invited to bring two recommendations for the upcoming year as we compose our 2020 reading and discussion schedule.

NEW BEGINNING JAN 21

Every Tuesday, Jan 21 - Jun 2

Neighborhood Storytime

For preschoolers age 3-5. TUESDAYS from 9:45 - 11:15 am.

Children will explore books and nature, with a focus on emotional growth. Parents/caregivers will stay on-site at the Gayton Kirk during the program. While children are engaged in storytime, adults will have the opportunity to take Tai Chi (10:00am - 11:00am), read in the library, use free internet services, have a cup of coffee, and/or explore the grounds of the Gayton Kirk campus. This program is FREE and open to everyone. Led by Stacy Deyerle.
