When We Breathe Together A Blessing for Pentecost Day

This is the blessing
we cannot speak
by ourselves.

This is the blessing
we cannot summon
by our own devices,
cannot shape
to our purpose,
cannot bend
to our will.

This is the blessing
that comes
when we leave behind
our aloneness
when we gather together
when we turn toward one another.

This is the blessing
that blazes among us
when we speak
the words
strange to our ears

when we finally listen
into the chaos

when we breathe together at last.

Pentecost Prayer

God of power,
may the boldness of your Spirit transform us,
may the gentleness of your Spirit lead us, may the gifts of your Spirit be our goal and our strength, now and always. Amen.

Scripture

Sally Wambold

Gracious God, may your Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to your words of love and grace this day. Amen.

Ezekiel 37:1-14 (from The Message)

^{1,2} GOD grabbed me. GOD's Spirit took me up and set me down in the middle of an open plain strewn with bones. He led me around and among them—a lot of bones! There were bones all over the plain—dry bones, bleached by the sun.

³He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

I said, "Master GOD, only you know that."

⁴He said to me, "Prophecy over these bones: 'Dry bones, listen to the Message of GOD!'"

⁵⁻⁶ GOD, the Master, told the dry bones, “Watch this: I’m bringing the breath of life to you and you’ll come to life. I’ll attach sinews to you, put meat on your bones, cover you with skin, and breathe life into you. You’ll come alive and you’ll realize that I am GOD!”

⁷⁻⁸ I prophesied just as I’d been commanded. As I prophesied, there was a sound and, oh, rustling! The bones moved and came together, bone to bone. I kept watching. Sinews formed, then muscles on the bones, then skin stretched over them. But they had no breath in them.

⁹ He said to me, “Prophesy to the breath. Prophesy, son of man. Tell the breath, ‘GOD, the Master, says, Come from the four winds. Come, breath. Breathe on these slain bodies. Breathe life!’”

¹⁰ So I prophesied, just as he commanded me. The breath entered them and they came alive! They stood up on their feet, a huge army.

¹¹ Then God said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Listen to what they’re saying: ‘Our bones are dried up, our hope is gone, there’s nothing left of us.’”

¹²⁻¹⁴ “Therefore, prophesy. Tell them, ‘GOD, the Master, says: I’ll dig up your graves and bring you out alive—O my people! Then I’ll take you straight to the land of Israel. When I dig up graves and bring you out as my people, you’ll realize that I am GOD. I’ll breathe my life into you and you’ll live. Then I’ll lead you straight back to your land and you’ll realize that I am GOD. I’ve said it and I’ll do it. GOD’s Decree.’”

Acts 2:1-4

¹⁻⁴ When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force—no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then, like a wildfire, the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks, and they started speaking in a number of different languages as the Spirit prompted them.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Feather on the breath of God

by Sarah Rossiter

“The feather flew, not because of anything in itself but because the air bore it along.”

—Hildegard of Bingen

It could have landed anywhere, swamp or forest; instead, floating on the quiet air, the tiny feather down drifted, weightless, from the open sky, into my cupped and waiting hands. Cream-colored, fragile, soft as milkweed,
a wordless message from beyond,
reminding me, how like the feather, we’re carried on the breath of God.

Prayers of the People

Stacy Deyerle

You are invited to sit, stand, kneel, stretch, or move as best suits you during this time of prayer.

Breathe in silence

Gracious Lord, we gather in community today to celebrate the gift of your Holy Spirit to the Church. Guide us as we seek to serve you. Fill us with your Spirit, that we might be your voices, hands, and presence in the world, and draw others into your beloved community.

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We pray for the Church that we may be renewed by the gifts of the Holy Spirit and reach out to one another as true disciples with faith, love, and hope. Help us to understand our weaknesses and our differences, so we can build a strong and loving community. We pray for those who follow the ways of Jesus everywhere, that they may be united as one Church through the action of the Holy Spirit . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

The Holy Spirit gave the apostles the gift and power of forgiveness. Grant us that gift, so we may use it to heal a broken world . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

Most Holy Spirit, grant an extra measure of Your gifts to all who serve and lead in your Church, as they strive to guide our collective spiritual journey through these trying and uncertain times . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We pray for all those who fear for their lives, for the victims of violence and war, and for those weighed down by troubles and anxieties. We pray that we may reach out to others with hope and care . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We pray for all who are lonely, weak, and vulnerable. We pray to be made agents of Your comforting and loving presence for them . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We pray remembering those who are sick, hurting, broken, dying, mourning. We pray for patience and peace for all who struggle in their bodies . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We pray for those who struggle to find adequate food and clean water, clothing and shelter and the other basic needs of life. We pray that governments, agencies, and the Church, will reach out to change the course of their history, sharing from the abundance held by others. Grant us the courage and generosity to be part of the solution . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

Give loving hearts, wise minds, and generous hands to elected and appointed leaders, in government and in all walks of life where they are given authority and power. Help each of us to notice our neighbor's distress, and give us the grace and the willingness to show active compassion . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

We remember all who are forgotten and neglected, abandoned and abused, who suffer at the hands of prejudice. Grant us the boldness to be used as agents of healing and change . . .

Breath of Life, Hear Our Prayer

Breathe in silence

Good and gracious God, send your Spirit into our hearts. Tear down the walls that divide us, and make us one. Help us to use your gifts wisely as we witness to your Love. We ask this in the name of Jesus our brother who showed us the Way. Amen

Let us now pray the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
