"The Sick Child," Edvard Munch

Welcome and Introduction

Janet James

We have walked with you, O God, from many parts of the world to this time and place.

And we will walk with you, O God,
into the world to serve all people.

We leave behind our old securities;
we leave behind our reliance on worldly goods.

And we will walk with you, O God,
into the world to live with all people.

We leave behind all which holds us back;
we leave behind all which keeps us from following you.

And we will walk with you, O God,
into the world to work with all people.

We leave behind the fears which bind us;
we leave behind the hurts which damage us.

And we will walk with you, O God,
into the peace you offer to all people.

Bless to us, O God,
the tenderness of your heart.
Wherever the stories of Jesus are told,
wherever gifts are offered in service,
wherever hope is a part of healing,
wherever songs of joy are sung,
in every land, in every heart,
in every village, and every place.

Bless to us, Christ of Peace,
the path which people walk
seeking to follow you:
worn smooth by the feet of pilgrims,
yet still rocky in places;
the destination unknown to many,
yet the way to life and hope.

Bless to us, Salty Spirit,
the companions you give to us:
mentors and mischief-makers,
curmudgeons and gigglers,
builders and believers,
brothers, sisters, aunts and uncles;
neighbors and strangers who gather in dusty villages and centers of power to feast on the goodness of your grace.

Tonight's Theme Jesus calls us to be a community of peace where trusting children (little ones ... the most vulnerable) are cherished.

Scripture

Sally Wambold

Faithful God, how blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.
Sanctify us by your Word and Spirit
so that we may glorify you in the company of the faithful;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mark 9:38-50

³⁸John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” ³⁹But Jesus said, “Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰Whoever is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

⁴²“If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. ⁴³If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. ⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

⁴⁹“For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A Poem by Marian Wright Edelman

We pray for the children
Who sneak popsicles before supper,
Who erase holes in math workbooks,
Who can never find their shoes.
And we pray for those
Who stare at photographers from behind barbed wire,
Who can't bound down the street in a new pair of sneakers,
Who never "counted potatoes,"
Who are born in places we wouldn't be caught dead,
Who never go to the circus,
Who live in an X-rated world.

We pray for children
Who bring us sticky kisses and fistfuls of dandelions,
Who hug us in a hurry and forget their lunch money.
And we pray for those
Who never get dessert,
Who have no safe blanket to drag behind them,
Who watch their parents watch them die,
Who can't find any bread to steal,
Who don't have any rooms to clean up,
Whose pictures aren't on anybody's dresser,
Whose monsters are real.

We pray for children
Who spend all their allowance before Tuesday,
Who throw tantrums in the grocery store and pick at their food,
Who like ghost stories,
Who shove dirty clothes under the bed, and never rinse out the tub,
Who get visits from the tooth fairy,
Who don't like to be kissed in front of the carpool,
Who squirm in church or temple and scream in the phone,
Whose tears we sometimes laugh at and whose smiles can make us cry.

And we pray for those Whose nightmares come in the daytime,
Who will eat anything,
Who have never seen a dentist,
Who aren't spoiled by anybody,
Who go to bed hungry and cry themselves to sleep,
Who live and move and have no being.

We pray for children who want to be carried
And for those who must,
For those we never give up on and for those who don't get a second chance.
For those we smother... and for those who will grab the hand of anybody kind enough to offer it.

Holy Communion

The Rev. Janet James
Elder Ross Riddell

*(Our communion bread is gluten free, and we use juice in lieu of wine.
Those at home are encouraged to set aside bread or bread substitute and wine or wine substitute to join us for communion.)*

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks and praise to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God:

Your word of wisdom is our teacher, sustaining us in our times of trouble and calling us to return to you in truth.

Therefore we praise you, joining the song of the universal church and the heavenly choir:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Tune: Tracy Fedke, b. 1975 arr: Koiné

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The tempo and style are indicated by the arrangement credit. The lyrics are as follows:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of heav-en - ly hosts.
Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of heav-en - ly hosts.
Heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san - na!
Ho-san - na! Ho-san-na in the high - est! Ho-san - na!
Ho-san - na! Bless-ed is he who comes! Bless-ed is he who comes!
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

We praise you in this congregation, Holy God,
and bless your Son, Jesus our Lord.
Stamped with your image,
he walked among us
so we could see who we could become.

When he spoke your Word of peace,
he shattered the walls of war and violence.
When he was offered the easy way out of his suffering and death,
he carried his integrity to Calvary,
where he was broken to make us whole,
where he died so we might live with you.

We remember, and in remembering,
we would tell others of your wonderful love,
and would be peacemakers for the world,
even as we live out that mystery we call faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Pour out the Spirit of the Prince of Peace not only on us
and the gifts of the bread and the cup,
but on all your children throughout the world:
who gather around war-scarred tables and at the tailgates of Humvees to pass the Bread of Life
from hand to hand
until all the hungry are fed;
and who stand on both sides of those walls built of our fears and hurts and dare to offer the Cup of peace to those known only as 'the enemy' unto all are graced and embrace one another in love.

Through your Son, Jesus, who is our peace;
through the Spirit, who empowers us to be weak;
we honor and glorify your hopes for all people in all creation, Great God our hope and our joy,
now and forever. Amen.

Let us pray the prayer that Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

Communion is shared

After we receive the bread and the cup, let us eat the bread but hold the cup and drink together.
