Call to Worship

Rev. Mary Kay Scott

Friends, we gather not because everything is settled, but because God is faithful.

We gather to remember the stories that shape us, the grace that has carried us, and the love that calls us by name.

We gather to belong to God and to one another bringing our whole selves, just as we are.

We gather to follow God together, trusting that the Spirit meets us here and leads us forward, step by step.
Let us worship God.

Tonight's Theme

"How do people keep going when life changes in ways they did not choose?"

Scripture

Sally Wambold

Psalm 13: 1-6

¹ How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? ² How long must I bear pain in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all day long? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me? ³ Consider and answer me, O Lord my God! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death, ⁴ and my enemy will say, "I have prevailed"; my foes will rejoice because I am shaken. ⁵ But I trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation. ⁶ I will sing to the Lord because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Ruth 1: 1-5

¹ In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons. ² The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there. ³ But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons. ⁴ These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years, ⁵ both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

“Night Prayer” by Anya Silver

I talk and talk and hear nothing back.
You who are neither voice, nor sign,
nor image. In answer to my pleas,
not the slightest flutter of humid air
or pause in cicadas’ raspy vespers.
No stutter of starlight, no pillow slipped beneath my knees or swallowtail alighting on my waiting hands.
No bird pecking up the pain in my chest
like a handful of sprouting peas.
The clock’s face does not waver;
neither does matter bend.
And what I speak remains traceless—
like a beetle’s breath, this Amen.

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Gracious God, we give you thanks and praise, for you are faithful from generation to generation. In times of fullness and in seasons of famine, you remain our refuge and our hope. You called a people to walk with you, and again and again you taught them that belonging is formed through love, through courage, and through choosing one another in uncertain times.

You met Ruth and Naomi on the road home, you provided daily bread in the fields, and you shaped a future through ordinary acts of kindness, faithfulness, and care. So we gather at this table to remember your saving love, to belong to one another in Christ, and to follow where your Spirit leads.

With gratitude and joy, we join our voices with the church of every time and place, praising your name and singing:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Tune: Tracy Fedke, b. 1975 arr: Koiné

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The first two staves are identical, showing the lyrics "Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God __ of heav-en - ly hosts." The third staff begins with "Heav-en and earth are full __ of your glo - ry." The fourth staff continues with "Ho-san - na! __" and "Ho-san - na! Ho - san-na in the high - est! Ho-san - na! __". The fifth staff begins with "Ho-san - na! __" and "Bless-ed is he __ who comes!" The sixth staff concludes with "Bless-ed is he __ who comes __ in the name of the Lord! __". The music is in common time, with a key signature of one flat. The piano accompaniment is indicated by a treble clef and a bass clef with a 'z' symbol.

Pastor continues in prayer

Hear us now as we pray the prayer Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
